

Online Training Programme on Climate Resilient Agriculture and Rural Livelihoods (12th – 16th October, 2020)

Objectives:

- 🌱 To familiarize the participants with the NAPCC w.s.r. to Sustainable Agriculture, Afforestation and Water; and operational framework for implementing these components;
- 🌱 To build the capacities of the participants on adaptations to climatic variability and coping with extreme events;
- 🌱 Community managed Climate resilient production systems and Farmers Producer Groups;
- 🌱 Community managed Agri. marketing interventions and value addition of agriculture produce;
- 🌱 Discuss the various facets of Disaster Management; and
- 🌱 To expose the participants to the successful cases/ best practices in climate resilience initiatives

Content:

- ❖ Climate change & Disaster Management scenario in India
- ❖ Climate change impact on water resources and sustainable agriculture
- ❖ Soil & crop management strategies
- ❖ Organic farming, fodder & livestock management systems
- ❖ Agroforestry; Greenhouse Gas Emission Reduction
- ❖ Risk management through weather insurance
- ❖ FPGs; Agri marketing interventions and value addition

Participants will be inter alia district level officials from the departments representing Agriculture, Horticulture, Irrigation, Soil and Water conservation, Watersheds, Forestry, and Rural Development etc. A few NGOs, members of Academia, KVKs, SIRDs, ETCs, Banking sector Agriculture officials could also be considered.

Time: 1000 hrs.– 1300 hrs.

Last Date for Registration: 8th October, 2020

Mode: Online

Platform: WebEx

Patron

Dr. R. M. Pant
Director
NIRDPR-NERC, Guwahati

Programme Director(s)

Dr. V. Suresh Babu
Associate Professor
NIRD&PR – NERC, Guwahati

Email: sureshnirdpr@gmail.com

Dr. Rongsentemjen Ao
Assistant Professor
NIRDPR-NRC, Guwahati

On successful completion of programme e-certificate will be issued

For more detail visit: www.nirdnerc.nic.in www.nirdpr.org.in

Registration Link: <https://forms.gle/nsJgPuNvybZRK9tX6>