

About NIRD&PR: The NIRD&PR is an apex Organization under the Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India for conducting training, research, action research and consultancy in Rural Development, Panchayati Raj and various allied subjects. The Institute creates a platform for discussion and debate on the issues of common concern, attracts academics and development practitioners from across the country and abroad. NIRD&PR trains more than 5000 senior level administrators annually including Policy makers, Planners and Rural Development functionaries.

Introduction

The Indian economy is predominantly rural and agricultural. The declining trends in land holding poses a serious challenge to the sustainability and profitability of farming. It is observed that under the gradual shrinking of land holding, integrating the land-based enterprises like fishery, poultry, dairy, duckery, apiary, annual and horticultural crops, mushroom cultivation etc. within the bio-physical and socio-economic environment of the farmers will make farming more sustainable and inter-dependable.

Keeping this in view, the Training programme on Integrated Farming System (IFS) for Livelihood Security is proposed to share knowledge and sensitize on the latest development in IFS.

Objectives

1. To familiarize the concept and principles of IFS
2. To sensitize the process involved in IFS
3. To integrate / converge with various Rural Development flagship programmes supporting IFS
4. To work out the economic viability, risk analysis and develop a business model of IFS

Broad Theme

1. Organic farming concept and IFS Model
2. Process involved in IFS
3. Economic analysis of different IFS models
4. Risk analysis of different IFS models
5. Develop a sustainable model for small and marginal farming communities
6. Integrating Rural Development flagship programmes to support IFS
